

Waystone upgrades London office as demand for services grows

October 29, 2024

- Waystone's London operations have moved to a new, state-of-the-art office in the heart of the City.
- In the UK, the business continues to see significant growth in demand for its services.
- The site has been refurbished by Railpen, with sustainability at the heart of the redevelopment.

Waystone, a leading provider of specialist services to the global asset management industry, has today announced the relocation of its London team to the prestigious 125 Wood Street development, near St. Paul's.

Located in the heart of the City and with a stunning roof terrace, this new space has been designed to inspire collaboration, innovation, and comfort, offering cutting-edge facilities and a modern, sustainable environment for the team to thrive. Waystone's new office will serve as a central hub for its London operations, welcoming around 100 employees through its doors.

The move follows continued growth in demand for Waystone's services, with the business recently named the leading independent ACD in the UK by assets under management. Waystone's global footprint now spans several other key financial hubs across North America, Europe, the Middle East and Asia Pacific, providing clients with global capabilities and localised expertise and support.

The refurbishment of 125 Wood Street was completed by Railpen, one of the largest pension managers in the UK.

Karl Midl, Country Head, United Kingdom at Waystone said: "Our move to 125 Wood Street is an exciting step for Waystone as we continue to enhance our presence in London, a key global financial hub. The new space will enable us to better serve our clients and provide a high-quality, sustainable working environment for our team."

Alastair Dawson, Senior Asset Manager at Railpen added: "We are delighted to welcome Waystone as the final tenant at 125 Wood Street. This agreement reflects Railpen's commitment to creating exceptional workplaces that attract globally recognised firms. 125 Wood Street has been redeveloped to create high-quality, sustainable spaces that align with the growth ambitions of top-tier occupiers like Waystone, while delivering secure long-term returns for our members."

Waystone's new address in London is:

6th Floor
125 Wood Street
London
